

Committing to Impact

Rochester, Minnesota Nonprofit Symposium

Hosted by the Greater Rochester Nonprofit Partnership and Rochester Area Foundation

Join us Wednesday, March 8
8 a.m.-2 p.m.
(lunch will be served)
at the Rochester Area Foundation

- Join the momentum in collaborating as a nonprofit network accountable to excellence and impact
- Learn about shifting national trends impacting the nonprofit sector
- Develop shared understanding of the competencies for becoming a high impact nonprofit community
- Commit to achieving lasting change in Rochester, Minnesota

About the presenter:

As the senior vice president of knowledge, leadership, and innovation for the Alliance for Strong Families and Communities, Polina Makievsky manages the organization's portfolio of leadership development, knowledge management, program replication, and evaluation services designed to help member organizations strengthen their capacity in achieving their missions. The Alliance for Strong Families and Communities is a national organization dedicated to achieving our vision of a healthy and equitable society.

