January 25, 2017 – For Immediate Release

New Members Join Zumbro Valley Health Center Board of Directors

Rochester, Minn. – Zumbro Valley Health Center today announced that Kathleen Shaw, Allison Stanfield and Steve Thornton had joined the board of directors. Their three-year terms began effective January, 23, 2017.

“Zumbro Valley Health Center will benefit greatly from the experience Kathleen, Allison and Steve bring to the board,” said Chief Executive Officer Dave Cook, LICSW, MSW. “Each brings a passion to helping people with a mental illness and improving our community to enhance the delivery of care to these individuals.”

The organization also named its board officers for 2017, with Samantha Grabau being named as chair, Greg Griffiths as vice chair, Penny Ness as secretary/treasurer and Steve Kerchberger as past chair.

The board recognized Anne Pronschinske and Linda Wieser for their six years of service on the board of directors.

About Zumbro Valley Health Center

Restoring hope...one life at a time. For the past 50 years, Zumbro Valley Health Center has worked to improve the health of people in SE Minnesota regardless of their ability to pay. Our organization enhances the quality of life for individuals through an integrated model of care providing behavioral health, medical, dental and community support services. Last year, staff served more than 4,000 people, the overwhelming majority of whom are from under-served populations. The services we provide all have the same goal – helping people with an addiction disorder, a mental illness or a co-occurring condition lead more healthy, productive and self-sufficient lives. Zumbro Valley Health Center is a private, non-profit organization serving Olmsted and Fillmore counties.
