Zumbro Valley Health Center Adds New Chief Executive Officer

Rochester, Minn. – Beth Krehbiel, RN, recently joined Zumbro Valley Health Center as chief executive officer. As CEO, Ms. Krehbiel is responsible for oversight of the day-to-day operations at the organization.

“Beth joining our staff is a key addition to both our organization and the community as a whole,” said Samantha Grabau, board chair. “Her extensive health care experience will be extremely valuable as Zumbro Valley Health Center continues on its path to integrating services for the region’s under- and un-insured populations.”

Ms. Krehbiel has more than 35 years of health care experience, including 25 years in a leadership capacity. Before joining the organization, she served in multiple leadership positions such as president of Fairview Ridges Hospital and chief operating officer of Fairview Red Wing Health Services. She has broad operational experience in diverse health care environments including hospital and clinics, homecare, hospice, community and behavioral health, start-up, program development and consulting in both urban and rural settings. Ms. Krehbiel has a Master's Degree in business administration from St. Thomas University, is a registered nurse with a Bachelor's Degree in nursing from Jamestown University and is an American College of Healthcare Executives Fellow.

About Zumbro Valley Health Center

Restoring hope...one life at a time. For the past 50 years, Zumbro Valley Health Center has worked to improve the health of people in SE Minnesota regardless of their ability to pay. Our organization enhances the quality of life for individuals through an integrated model of care providing behavioral health, medical, dental and community support services. Last year, staff served more than 4,000 people, the overwhelming majority of whom are from under-served populations. The services we provide all have the same goal – helping people with an addiction disorder, a mental illness or a co-occurring condition lead more healthy, productive and self-sufficient lives. Zumbro Valley Health Center is a private, non-profit organization serving Olmsted and Fillmore counties. For more information, visit our Web site at www.zvhc.org or call 507-289-2089.
