Zumbro Valley Mental Health Center Adds New Medical Director

Rochester, Minn. – Leo Passov, MD, recently joined the staff of Zumbro Valley Mental Health Center. As medical director, Dr. Passov is responsible for the development, implementation and coordination of psychiatric and medical practices and policies in the organization. He also will provide psychiatric services for adults along with prescribing and monitoring medications for new and existing clients. Dr. Passov is currently taking appointments for psychiatric services.

Dr. Leo Passov is a board-certified adult psychiatrist and diplomat of the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology.

“Dr. Passov joining our staff is a significant addition to both our organization and the community as a whole,” said Dave Cook, chief executive officer. “He brings a diverse background to the position and his knowledge of psychiatric disorders will greatly benefit the thousands of people who utilize Zumbro Valley Mental Health Center for their care.”

Prior to joining the organization, Dr. Passov served as a psychiatrist at the Rochester Community Behavioral Health Hospital and Aurora Hospital and Clinics. Dr. Passov received his medical degree from the UW-Madison School of Medicine and completed his residency at Mayo Clinic Rochester.
